

Jacqueline Lacovara

USA Citizen • Mobile: (347) 443-3052 • Email: lacovarj@bc.edu

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts International Studies - Ethics and Social Justice - Hispanic Studies – May 21, 2018
Boston College, Morrissey College of Arts and Sciences Chestnut Hill, MA. GPA 3.522

- Universidad de Alberto Hurtado (Summer 2016) Santiago, Chile
- University of Cape Town (Summer 2016) Cape Town, South Africa

Teaching English as a Foreign Language Certificate October – November 2018

ICEP TEFL Training – Puerto Vallarta, Mexico

- A four-week (140 contact hours) intensive course with 10 hours observed teaching practice on groups of different ability, including one to one teaching.

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Teaching Assistant

August – December 2017

- Seminar-style elective for first-year students to address most pressing questions of academia, society, and our campus.
- Collaborate with professor and other teaching assistants to lead class discusión.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Boston College Chestnut Hill, MA

January 2016 – September 2018

Orientation Leader

- Provided academic advising to 60+ incoming first year students for the academic year.
- Communicated the University's mission, policies and programs through individual and public education session for incoming first.
- year students and their parents, including student panels for crowds of +500 people.
- Participated in trainings on diversity and inclusion, group facilitation and various facets of student and academic life.
- Collaborated with Boston College faculty, administration and senior leadership as a student ambassador.
- Facilitated group conversations on topics of identity, diversity, campus culture and decision-making for incoming students.

Women's Club Rugby Team

- President / Oversee all club activities and coordinate with 14 other team officers.
- Social Secretary /Plan social events for the team and work to create positive and welcoming environment for all members.

Student Admission Program

- Served as Tour Guide and led weekly tours to prospective students and interested parents.
- Participated in "Eagle-for-a-day" program by spending 1-on-1 time with prospective students.

LANGUAGES

- Native Speaker of English
- Highly proficient in written and oral Spanish